

Oscar Alfonso Zuluaga

Special Representative, the Rome Consensus

Oscar Zuluaga holds a degree in Business Administration from the University of Cali, Colombia. From a young age Oscar pursued a life long career in the Red Cross/Red Crescent Movement. He became director of the Local Branch of the Colombian Red Cross in 1975. He then covered a number of high level positions in the Colombian Red Cross and became CEO-Secretary General in 1992.

His international experience with the Movement include Director of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies Youth Commission between 1981-1989 and international missions in Grenada, Iraq, Jordan, Syria, East Timor, Kazakhstan and Kirghizstan. He's advisor to a number of National Societies of Red Cross and Red Crescent worldwide and has been running training courses for humanitarian agencies in Austria, Japan, Finland, France, Spain, New Zealand, Colombia, Canada, Denmark, Sweden, Australia and Germany. He's also garnered experience and delivered training in fundraising, organisational development. He is currently Special Representative of the Rome Consensus for the Humanitarian Drug Policy.